

“ Honored by the American Society of Journalists & Authors as well as the Chicago Headline Club and Illinois Women’s Press Association, Chicago Health’s mission is to empower it’s readers to make better healthcare choices.

Editorial Calendar

Chicago Health is the region's only award-winning magazine providing content to people interested in health matters. Honored for journalistic excellence by the American Society of Journalists & Authors, the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons, the National Federation of Press Women as well as the Chicago Headline Club and Illinois Women's Press Association, Chicago Health's mission is to empower it's readers to make better healthcare choices. Our non-advertorial content enhances health literacy and assures the magazine will be valued and saved by readers as a resource for future reference. All stories in the print edition are also available on chicagohealthonline.com.

Chicago Health is ahead of the curve in healthcare coverage. As one local media professional posed in connection with a recent story, "Could chemotherapy and radiation one day be a thing of the past? We can only hope so and, if it is, Chicago Health magazine will mostly be writing about it long before it happens."

Each issue consists of an in-depth cover story (prevention, March 2022, and heart disease/obesity, September 2022). Each issue has a feature story in each of these areas of health.

- Women's Health
- Men's Health
- Cardiology and Vascular issues
- Cancer
- Vision
- Neurological issues
- Pediatrics
- Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine
- Growing Older
- Mental Health

For a complete and detailed list of stories for the next two issues, please contact your sales representative.